NATIONAL READING DAY
Azeezia Medical College
2025 June 19

This day is celebrated on June 19th in honor of Puthuvayil Narayana Panicker (1909-1995) who pioneered the library movement in Kerala and promoted literacy and reading culture

It was first observed in 1996 after his death, encourages reading, digital literacy and lifelong learning. The week following June 19th is observed as Reading week and the entire month as reading month in many institutions across India.

"Read and grow"

The official motto of the PN Panicker foundation

This day was observed at Azeezia Medical College by creating awareness and realizing read to lead.
